

Rules and regulations for the:

Wisconsin Simmental Association "PERFORMANCE COW OF THE YEAR" award

---

There will be 1 "Cow of the Year" award each year.

There will be a first and second runner-up "Cow of the Year" award each year.

The winner of the "Cow of the Year" award will be retired from eligibility for this award and will not be eligible to compete in future years.

Cows do not have to be entered in consecutive years to be eligible for awards when they do enter.

Deceased cows will be considered for this award if they gave birth and raised a calf the past year.

Cows that have been used as recipients will not be given credit for the embryo calves they raised, but all of her calving intervals will be included in her average calving interval.

Eligibility:	Open to purebred or fullblood cows that are 50% or more owned by current W.S.A. or W.J.S.A. members.
Criteria:	Cow must have had its first calf prior to reaching 30 months of age.  Cow must have had a minimum of 3 calvings and raised a minimum of 3 of her natural calves.  Cows are eligible as long as they continue to have calves and raise them.
Judging:	Calving ease of each natural calf.  Adjusted weaning weights of each natural calf.  Number of calves raised.  Average calving interval for all calves.  There will be a cash award for the first 3 placings.

Please return the completed application form and payment of a nomination fee of $10.00 to cover award expenses to:
